DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on February 10, 2006 has been entered.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: All of the pending claims have the requirement that the carousel is rotatably mounted in the chamber of the PCR system. This includes claims 121 and 122, which were previously indicated as rejected and are not amended. Upon consideration of this limitation and Applicant's arguments, it is clear that Fields does not teach or suggest placement of the carousel into the chamber of the PCR system. Applicant correctly notes that Clark is not prior art since Applicant receives benefit of priority to the parent application for this limitation. Similarly, the Schiffman reference cannot be combined with Fields to obtain the PCR instrument with a carousel rotatably mounted in the chamber since there is no motivation to combine these teachings. Additionally, placement of the carousel into the chamber would be unobvious and perhaps even lack expectation of success because the carousel would cause mechanical vibrations which could interfere with the amplification or detection processes. Therefore, in the absence of any teaching to place the carousel into the chamber and in absence of any motivation or suggestion in the art to alter the device of Fields, the claimed invention is novel and unobvious over the cited prior art.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
